Mark Simonson is named Mortgage Loan Officer for Consumers Credit Union, Lakeshore Region

HOLLAND, MICH—Mark Simonson, formerly a Member Service Representative II at Consumers Credit Union's Washington Office, in Holland, Michigan, is now its Mortgage Loan Officer for the entire lakeshore region. In his new position, Simonson will continue to provide exceptional member service while growing mortgages throughout the region for Consumers. Along with working with current members his focus will be on establishing relationships with area realtors, builders, and other industry professionals.

Simonson grew up in Holland and attended Holland Public Schools. He continued his education at Hope College where he played baseball and graduated with a major in business administration and minor in political science.

Simonson's extensive work experience is exclusively in the banking and mortgage industry. Nine years ago, he began his career as a mortgage broker in north metro Minneapolis, Minnesota; and, two years later, became a mortgage banker for M & I Bank in same twin cities area. He is certified for FHA and construction lending, and has worked with established borrowers, first-time home buyers, builders, and investors.

Having seen both the best and worst of the mortgage industry, Simonson believes he can provide members with the knowledge and experience necessary for choosing the most suitable product, and provide the highest level of assistance during every step of the mortgage process.

“Never in my career have I worked for an organization that cares more about the individuals who use their products and services,” reiterates Simonson, “At Consumers, we believe the member is more than a number; we care about their well-being and do everything possible to exceed expectations.” He says it’s a perfect fit for his own personal values, adding, “As a mortgage loan officer, I make every effort to look out for the member’s best interests.”

Simonson regularly attends Holland Chamber of Commerce events and serves on its ambassador committee. Along with his wife and son, the family makes their home in Holland. Simonson stills plays baseball in the summer for the Kentwood City league, enjoys time at the beach, and golfing.
