Kalamazoo Neighborhood Housing Services, Inc. and Consumers Team Up to Provide Free Financial Seminars

KALAMAZOO, MICH—Consumers Credit Union has teamed up with Kalamazoo Neighborhood Housing Services, Inc. (KNHS) to provide two financial seminars that are free to the public on September.

Credit Score Seminar, 6:00 – 7:30 PM

In the first seminar participants will learn how to improve a low credit score. People can have low credit scores for various reasons including changes in circumstance and insufficient credit history. Consumers and KNHS would like to empower people to get their credit scores back on track because they understand that low credit scores can happen to anyone.

Budgeting Seminar, 4:00 – 5:30 PM

The second seminar aims to help participants put together an effective to assist with financial planning and stability. With many people living paycheck to paycheck, this seminar presents better alternatives to payday lending.

Both seminars will be held at Consumers' Stadium Drive location: 7040 Stadium Drive Oshtemo, MI 49077. All are welcome to attend both seminars. If you are interested, please RSVP online at www.ConsumersCU.org/seminars or call 800.991.2221.
